Things You Should Know

SEOP's units and metal building kits are for agricultural use only (unless permitted for other use). Southeastern Outdoor Products of FL only sells the materials or kit to make a unit. An independent assembler will be responsible for assembly of unit. I have read and completely understand the above information. We do not guarantee any product from acts of God or any other weather related events. Wind ratings are guide to purchasing a product but are not a warranty or guarantee on any product.
